Consul General Woo Joo Chang introduced his team and discussed the possibility of introducing a ‘musical cultural’ exchange program between Fiji and Korea. His Excellency the President mentioned he would like the delegation to explore Fiji’s investment capabilities that would strengthen and encourage trade between Fiji and Korea, and reiterated that, how pleased was he of having such delegation visit our shores. The Delegation then had coffee and were given a tour around the official residence of the President.

HONORABLE PRIME MINISTER – COMMODORE J. V. BAINIMARAMA

13. The Honorable Prime Minister, Commodore Joasaia Voreqe Bainimarama met the delegates at around 10.30 hrs and thanked the Korean Government for retaining business ties with Fiji. General Chang introduced his team to the Honorable Prime Minister and with each member of General Chang’s team having unique interest in Fiji; the Prime Minister highlighted each sector accordingly in the 45 minute meeting in his chambers. In regards to tourism the Prime Minister informed the delegates that with direct flights now to Korea and Hong Kong, Fiji should be able to attract more Asian tourists and business people. This information added value to Mr. Jimmy Cha’s, a Professor at the Sejong University, as his intention was to explore casino operations for Fiji. Mr. Cha had a wealth of experience in casinos as he has assisted in setting up a lot of casinos in Las Vegas, United States of America and also in Korean. The Hon. Prime Minister stated there is a lot of opposition by churches and a lot of other social ill when the issue of casinos are discussed in the country, therefore his government will have to thoroughly dissect all the pros and cons, before giving the all clear for casinos to operate in Fiji, not forgetting the economic return it can bring to the country if proper legislations and other mechanisms are put in place. On the same not Prof Cha alluded to the Hon. Prime Minister that Korea also faced similar opposition as nearly forty (40) percent of Korea's population are also strong believers of Christ and it was for this very basic reason he was specifically asked by the Head of State in Korea for his proficiency in the gaming industry. He then alluded that in Korea locals are prohibited to engross themselves with casinos and despite this the gaming industry has grown ,they started with only one (1) casino but now they have seven (7) casino's and the demand is more as the industry starts to show the economic returns to the country. The Hon Prime Minister was very impressed to hear Prof.Cha's views and asked him the dollar value of setting up a casino. Prof Cha informed the Prime Minister that to set up a casino will cost about US $30 million that includes machines and also training the individuals who will be employed. Prof Cha assured the Prime Minister of his assistance in this regard and even offered to invest and set up the casino on his own accord if the government finds it difficult in looking for the much need funds, if the government endorses the operation of casinos in the country in the near future. The Prime Minister then requested Prof Cha to have a look at the Momi Bay Resort which the government is embarking on to sell. The Prime Minister informed the delegation that the investor for this particular project has gone bankrupt and there was also a substantial amount of money that was invested into the project by FNPF. The government was trying its best to sell the Momi Bay Resort in order to recuperate its cost, and the idea that was floated once to the government was that, if a casino is enticed to the resort it would attract potential buyers for the resort. The Delegation then made presentation of gifts to the Hon. Prime Minister and were offered light refreshments.

CONCLUSION

20. These type of investment mission is very important if we are to achieve economic prosperity to our full potential. The hard work that was done by HE.Mr. Isikeli Maitoga, Fiji's Ambassador to Japan and his team, in doing all the preparatory work for this delegation from their end will surely nurture the fruits for the government, as we embark towards the road of the Look North Policy. In these difficult times when our tradition allies have become our greatest embargo, to have as many trade missions as possible is the only way forward.
